Wilton Manors, Florida _____ November 8, 2011

Announcing our 6th Island City Art Walk Season! A Collaboration of Fine Art and Business
Friday, November 18th, 7 – 10 pm

Wilton Drive, in Wilton Manors is the place to be on the evening of Friday, November 18, 2011. The Drive will be bustling with people. Local artists will offer a variety of original works: paintings, photography and sculpture. Stroll along The Drive or ride the free trolley along and discover the eclectic businesses of one of the coolest towns in South Florida: Wilton Manors. Plan to have dinner in one of Wilton Manor's fine restaurants before, or after the Art Walk. Meet over 40 local artists and consider purchasing a special piece of fine art.

Mary Ellen Charapko, of the Ellen Charapko Gallery, is the founder and organizer of the grassroots, mile long, Island City Art Walk. This "private party function" began in December 2006. The Island City Art Walk business sponsors continue to raise cultural awareness in Broward County and have contributed to economic growth in Wilton Manors. Charapko and the sponsoring businesses on Wilton Drive are solid "supporters of the arts." Please join us for an easy-going, fun evening on The Drive.

The Island City Art Walk is a 3rd Friday night of the month free, art function, which runs November through April. The public is invited. This is the first Island City Art Walk for the 2011-2012 Season!
